And we are united by our shared values and a dedication to delivering exceptional client service

We have ambitious goals for 2020. Globally, we want to be #1 or #2 in professional services and be the best brand. To achieve this, our teams need to perform at the highest level, and have a relentless focus on delivering the excellent client service that will help us to continue to grow and become the market leader. In this context, your career will develop and grow. Our ambition is to develop and further our employees, our clients and the society, we live in. "Building a better working world" remains our ultimate aim.

Consultant (f/m) – Transaction Advisory Services (Financial Services EMEIA FSO) Insurance/ Munich

Tasks and challenges which will promote your career:

In EMEIA Financial Services we specialize in the audit and consultation of insurers, banks and other financial services companies.

Our list of clients includes those from the significant circles of financial investors and blue chip insurance companies. With our support our clients are able to make the most informed decisions regarding the sale or purchase of parts or individual assets of the target company. We accompany them through the whole cycle of the transaction process.

Your roles and tasks within EY's Transaction Insurance Division could include:

- Support buy-side and sell-side Financial Due Diligence projects within M&A activities in an international and national insurance context.
- Planning and implementing of transformation tasks (e.g., Integrations and Carve-Outs) as well as the preparation of strategic tax concepts and the support of the Insurance Company's executive board during the evaluation of business methods (e.g. the analysis and preparation of business plans).
- Participation in M&A projects (buy- and sell-side), such as Project Management Office, data room management, the preparation of transaction documents or the preparation of contract negotiations as well as the preparation of country, market and competition analysis.
- Support in the valuation of insurance companies and insurance portfolios as well as financial modeling in the M&A environment.

Simultaneously we offer you:

- The opportunity to be part of a dynamic, professional and ambitious team which specializes in advising insurance companies as the market leading insurance transaction advisor
- Considerable responsibility due to flat hierarchies and the opportunity to work independently within a framework of multi-national and multidisciplinary teams
- Involvement in all stages of the transaction (financial and market analyses, evaluations, due diligence, carve-out/ post-merger integration, etc.)
- Excellent career and personal development opportunities

We are the German market leader in transaction advisory services in the insurance industry. Together with our team we advise the largest German insurance companies on an international scale.

Your Profile to make a difference together

Your skills and interests lie in the field of financial services with a strong focus on insurance and accounting/finance. You recently completed your degree in business administration or economics with outstanding results with a focus on either insurance and accounting or controlling and finance. Ideally, you bring with you relevant experience from either an accounting or insurance firm where you worked within accounting. Your area of interest can additionally be supported by other relevant qualifications (e.g., through educations in the field of insurance).

In addition to strong analytical and conceptual skills, you show a high level of commitment and motivation as well as the ability to keep a cool head in testing situations. You relish the chance to work as a team, to have fun and to develop new solutions. Sound MS Office skills particularly Excel and PowerPoint complete your profile. Due to our international orientation, great knowledge of English as well as willingness to travel are additionally sought after.

More opportunities for your personnel development

EY is committed to being an inclusive employer and we are happy to consider flexible working arrangements. We strive to achieve the right balance for our people, enabling us to deliver excellent client service whilst allowing you to build your career without sacrificing your personal priorities. We are convinced that your energy, your enthusiasm and your mindset will be of great benefit to our company.
